Symptoms

Of Defective Vision

Many persons have the idea that defective vision manifests itself only in a failure or inability to see clearly, but itching, burning, smarting of the lids, dull pains in the eyes or head, even the back of the head, all come from irregularities in the optical construction of the eyes and may be entirely relieved by correctly fitted glasses.

DR. J. T. JOHNSON Guarantees to correct every case that he undertakes. If your eyes are giving annoyance consult him at once.

SHRIER-BENDHEIM.

One of The Most Beautiful Weddings Ever Witnessed in Alexandria.

The following account of the marriage of Mr. M. B. Shrier, of this city and Miss Minnie Bendheim, of Alexandria, is taken from yesterday's Alexandria Gazette:

Mr. Magnus B. Shrier, of Greensboro, N. C., and Miss Minnie Bendheim, daughter of Mr. D. Bendheim, of this city, were married in Odd Fellows' Hall, on North Columbus street, last night. The ceremony was performed by Rabbi Stern, of Washington. The bride was becomingly attired in white silk, with lace veil and carried bride roses. She entered the hall on the arm of her father, and was met at the altar by the groom. The groom was attended by his cousin, Jacob Shrier and Miss Shrier acted as maid of honor. The ushers were J. B. Shrier, J. Dreyfus, Alok Kaufmann, F. Bendheim, Sol. Meyer and L. Ruben. After the ceremony an elaborate reception was held and dancing was kept up until a late hour. Guests were present from Greensboro, Washington, Cleveland, Baltimore and elsewhere. Mr. and Mrs. Shrier will reside in Greensboro. It was generally conceded that the entire affair was one of the pleasantest ever witnessed in Alexandria.

ONE MILLION DOLLARS.

The Capitalization of The Cotton Flannel Factory Company.

The news has already been given in these columns that another new enterprise of mammoth proportions is to be installed in Greensboro. Writing about this Mr. G. T. Kearsley says in the Manufacturers' Record of this week:

The most important development of the week at this point has been the closing of contracts, securing to Greensboro the enterprise referred to in my last letter, which is a mill for manufacturing cotton flannels. The company is headed by Messrs. E. & H. Sternberger, of Ohio, S. C.; Cone Export & Commission Co., of Greensboro, and interests are also held by northern capitalists. This company has a capitalization of $1,000,000, of which $300,000 has been paid in, and the plant will be promptly installed, which is claimed will be the largest cotton mill in the south, with one exception.

Cotton flannel is now exclusively manufactured in the north, and this development is but another evidence of facilities offered by this section in the manufacture of cotton fabrics.

STATE vs. ALFRED GIBSON.

What Will The Verdict Be?—Some Strong Speeches.

We stated yesterday that Solicitor Brooks was conducting the prosecution alone in the case of Alfred Gibson, charged with rape. We were unaware then that he was ably assisted by Mr. G. Sam Bradshaw. The taking of evidence was finished yesterday afternoon and Mr. Bradshaw opened the argument, making a capital speech. The argument has consumed the whole of today. Messrs. Staples and Schenck spoke this morning, both making strong speeches. Solicitor Brooks began speaking when court opened this afternoon and is now making a weighty speech, asking for the defendant's life. His is the closing speech and it is likely that a verdict will be reached today.

Verdict of the jury returned at 4:20—no guilty.

Chinese Measuring Party.

The young ladies' missionary society of West Market street M. E. church gave a Chinese Measuring Party last night at the residence of Mrs. Trotter on Ashe street, the proceeds of which will go to educate the society's girl in China. The admission was five cents for every foot, and one cent for each extra inch in height, and the young ladies and gentlemen turned out well, the receipts being about $17.00. The parlors were handsomely decorated with Chinese parasols, lanterns, etc., numerous parlor games were indulged in, refreshments were served, and every one present spent a very enjoyable evening.

Distributing Free Tickets.

Mr. J. M. Cochran, of Atlanta, is in the city in the interest of the Coca Cola company. He is distributing a number of free tickets good at any fountain where that delicious and refreshing drink is dispensed. If you get anything that looks like a ticket, examine it before you throw it down. It may be good for a glass of Coca Cola.

DEWEY WANTS THE OREGON.

For Political Reasons, He Says, It Should Be Sent.

THE PHILIPPINE SITUATION.

Business Is Proceeding in Spite of Excitement of The Last Two Days

Affairs Are More Quiet.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Feb. 24.—Secretary Long took to the cabinet this morning two cipher cables from Admiral Dewey, dated this morning, one of which says:

"For political reasons the Oregon should be sent here at once."

The other says:

"The Yorktown has arrived and the Charleston and Petree are en route around the Philippines. Affairs are more quiet."

CABLE FROM OTIS.

Washington, Feb. 25.—General Otis cabled today: "On the nights of the 21st, and 22nd and yesterday morning the insurgent troops gained access to the outskirts of the city behind our lines. Many are invading; about a thousand entrenched themselves and were completely routed yesterday. Loss in killed and wounded about five hundred and two hundred prisoners were taken. Our loss is very slight. The city is quiet, confidence is being restored and business is progressing."

THE PRESENT SITUATION.

Manila, Feb. 24.—Owing to the wholesale arrests of all suspected Filipinos yesterday and the clearance of the streets by seven o'clock last night the threatened renewal of the scenes of the previous night did not occur with the exception of a few shots in the neighborhood of the penitentiary. The city is quiet as possible, but outside of Manila the rebels are very active. Near Calocan there have been several lively skirmishes. At daylight the enemy was driven back with severe loss.

The feeling in the city is much improved today and business generally has been resumed. Hughes police is generally commended for preserving excellent order. The Scandia arrived last night with the Twentieth Infantry.

CONTINUED SKIRMISHING.

Manila, Feb. 24, 4:35 p. m.—Despite the excitement of the past two days, business is proceeding as usual and there is general confidence in the ability of the authorities to maintain order. American women were sent on board transport to safeguard them against danger. Sharpshooters have practically ceased but there is continued skirmishing. In McArthur's front one American was killed and four wounded this morning. The Utah battery this morning bombarded the church San Francisco Del Monte, which was used by the insurgents as a fortress from which they attacked the South Dakota's yesterday.

An Atrocious Negro

Jonesboro, Feb. 22.—Some time ago there appeared in the town a negro by the name of George Edwards, who claimed to be a clergyman of the Baptist church. He was modest and humble in his way, and was not long in gaining the affections of Penny McCoy, twenty years his senior, and who is possessed of some cash and a good tract of ground. They were married. It turns out that the negro is not a preacher, but a veritable demon. In the last month he has beaten his wife cruelly several times; tied her out in the yard during the cold snap; stuck a pitchfork in her arm; and finally, last Saturday, stuck the prong of an iron table fork in the old woman's eye, destroying the sight thereof. It was only by accident that his atrocities became known. The negroes were on the point of lynching him. But he is now safe in jail at Carthage, and Penny doesn't want to see him any more.

Appropriation Bill.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.
Washington, Feb. 24.—The house is considering the army appropriation bill. Debate has been limited to five hours to be concluded before adjournment tonight.

His Left Lung Involved.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.
New York, Feb. 24.—Drs. Janeway and Dunham issued a bulletin this morning that Rudyard Kipling's left lung is also somewhat involved, but that his general condition is no worse.

No Cure—No Pay.

A SAD AND REMARKABLE CASE.

Defaulting Cashier of The National Bank of Asheville, Brought Back.

Lawrence Pulliam, formerly one of the most popular men in Western North Carolina, was brought to Greensboro last night, by Deputy Marshal H. M. Moffitt and J. H. Shine, of San Francisco, Cal., and turned over to Marshal Millikan who placed him in jail.

The case of Lawrence Pulliam is a sad and remarkable one. He was at one time looked upon as one of the brightest men in his section and when Judge Douglas was marshal of the Western district, he appointed Pulliam his chief deputy. Later he held the position of cashier of the National Bank of Asheville. He occupied a high place in the society of that city. In 1893 he defaulted and absconded with several thousand dollars and since that time nothing had been heard from him until, on the 20th of January last he confessed his crime and surrendered to the authorities at Oakland, California.

He was brought back to North Carolina disgraced and looking little better than a tramp.

He has a bright eye, an unusually intelligent face, his shoulders are somewhat bent and his look despondent. There is little in his personal appearance to recall the high position which he once so acceptably filled. He will have nothing whatever to say of his trouble and in talking to Marshal Millikan said nothing except that he thought he would be able to give the bond of $5,000 required of him. He told Mr. Millikan that he would answer no questions and ask none. He is now in jail here, where if he is unable to give bond, he will be kept until the special term of Federal court which convenes in Asheville on March 8th.

Charlotte Loses in Committee.

The "Queen City" is making a gallant fight for the dispensary. They went to Raleigh yesterday nearly 200 strong with petitions representing a majority of everything that is white in Mecklenburg county, eight-tenths of the property and nine-tenths of the decency and yet Senator Osborne "demanded" of the committee an unfavorable report, which was made. The advocates of the measure will fight until the finish and promise to be there in strong numbers on next Tuesday, when the bill comes up before the senate.

Senator Osborne should have remembered the advice of that great man who once said: "Avoid all entangling alliances." Speed the day when the influence of the saloon will be eliminated from our political life. An ex-attorney general of the state prevented from representing the will of his constituents by the bonds in which he is bound to saloon men.

Birds Frozen By The Thousand.

A correspondent from Florence, S. C., writing to the Charleston News and Courier has the following to say of the recent extreme weather:

"As to the birds, there will be very few left at all. Hundreds of doves were found frozen to death. The bluebirds will be a thing of the past, for there were a very few of them left before the freeze, and now they are almost completely wiped out."

Hundreds of robins, old field sparrows, partridges and even pigeons, have been frozen and dead. Burstars came very near falling by the wayside. Yesterday and today they could be seen in endless numbers in the fields and swamps and even in the yards about town in a half frozen condition, picking up scraps of anything they could feed on.

The only bird that seems to have stood the cold without bodily harm was the pestiferous English sparrow. He is still in existence, and will continue to eat up growing vegetables and multiply ten fold.

Bulgaria in Azores.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Ponta Del Gado, Azores, Feb. 24.—The Bulgaria arrived here today in tow of another steamer. There are 840 people aboard, all in good health. The Bulgaria broke down on Feb 2nd and has drifted helplessly ever since. She stopped eleven days repairing machinery and rudder. She lost one man during the operation. The British steamer Antilla attempted to take the Bulgaria in tow but gave it up and she proceeded alone.

Causes Apprehension.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.
Washington, Feb. 24.—Admiral Dewey's cable asking that the battleship Oregon be hurried to the Philippines has caused officials here to believe the situation in the Philippines to be very serious. The dispatch causes the greatest apprehension.

Scores of ladies in Greensboro know what the Hamilton-Brown Shoe Co.'s oxford's are. Thacker & Brookman have just opened up a large shipment of these excellent oxford's in the new color too, heeled and spring heeled, and also in the low heeled wide common sense shape.

NATIONAL CAPITAL GOSSIP.

Opinions as to the Contested Election Cases.

KITCHIN ON THE AMENDMENT.

Washington Newspaper Man to Wed in Asheville—Thought General Wheeler has lost his Seat.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Feb. 24.—The refusal of the house of representatives yesterday afternoon to consider the Virginia contested election case of Brown vs. Swanson, will end all efforts to get the case before the house at this session, and Mr. Swanson will retain his seat until the end of his term. The vote against consideration yesterday was even more emphatic than on the last occasion when Representative Crispacker attempted to get the case before the house. General Walker, chairman of the committee, was not present when the vote was taken. The vote yesterday, which is virtually a vote declaring Mr. Swanson entitled to the seat, is very gratifying to his friends who have stood by him in his contest. Many republicans believe that he was legally elected over his republican opponent, and expressed this opinion by voting in the affirmative. Other republicans who believe Mr. Swanson entitled to his seat, but who did not care to go on record against the motion to consider, found it convenient to attend to other business yesterday, which required their presence outside of the legislative hall during the voting. The consequence was that when the house met yesterday there was a scant attendance on the republican side of the chamber, while there was a correspondingly large representation on the democratic side of the house.

There are a few other contested election cases from the south remaining on the house calendar, including two cases from South Carolina, one of them being a contest for the seat of Representative Elliott. It is not likely that any of the remaining cases will be considered, as the house does not seem disposed to waste its time in their consideration during the last days of the session, when there is likely to be a rush of business which it is important should be disposed of before adjournment.

Representative Kitchin, of North Carolina, the only democratic member of the present house from the state, and who will also be a member of the next congress, says that the amendment to the constitution regarding elections in North Carolina, will pass by a large majority. The people of the state, he says, are determined to add the amendment to the constitution of the state, and he thinks that it will rid the state of negro rule, and of the disgraceful acts which have characterized the fusion regime in the state. Mr. Kitchin does not think there is the slightest ground for the law being declared unconstitutional.

The southern contingent in Washington is much interested in the approaching marriage of Miss Lulu Dressel, formerly of Columbus, Ohio, who is now living with her mother at Asheville, North Carolina, to Mr. Howard N. Thompson, a well known Washington correspondent. The wedding, it is said will be very quiet, and will take place early in March at Asheville. Mr. Thompson is connected with the Associated Press, and with several newspapers in the south.

It is thought that the house will adopt the report of the committee in which they declare that Gen. Wheeler and other members of the house, who accepted commissions in the volunteer army have lost their seats in congress. The decision of the house in this matter may have an important bearing in the West Virginia senatorial contest of McGraw against Scott, as Scott was elected by the votes of two members of the Legislature who served in the volunteer army. McGraw does not claim to have been elected, but his claim is that there has been no election.

Senator Butler from the senate naval committee has reported a bill for the relief of Julius A. Kaiser. The bill is reported favorably by the committee, and without amendment.

Dr. J. L. Moore and wife, of North Carolina, were in the city yesterday morning. They registered at the Metropolitan Hotel.

Mrs. A. C. Avery, of North Carolina, has joined her husband here, the latter having been in Washington for several days this week.

Mr. H. C. Myers, of Schuyler, N. C., is at the St. James Hotel.

Sick in Calcutta.

WIDE TIRE VEHICLES.

Bills Have Been Introduced to Promote Their Use.

Bills have been introduced by Messrs. Carroll, of Alamance, and Clarkson, of Mecklenburg, which have for their purpose the adoption of wide tires on all wagons and other draft vehicles, and it is greatly to be hoped that these bills will be adopted for all of the counties in the state. They levy no taxes; they impose no fines or penalties; they do not compel any one to use wide tires; and in order to do so throw away wagons or narrow-tired wheels; they simply encourage people to use wide tires, whenever new wagons or new wheels for old wagons need to be purchased.

It is generally admitted that macadam roads are too expensive to be generally adopted in North Carolina. It is also generally admitted that while the dirt roads are the least expensive to build, they are the most costly to use, especially during the winter season, when the surfaces are softened by rain and cut to pieces by the narrow wheels. But all experiments and experience go to show that the use of wide tires on the dirt roads, whether these roads be of sand or clay, not only does not cut the road to pieces, but actually packs and smooths the surface, consequently the use of wide tires benefits the road and hence we should do everything possible to encourage the use of these wide tires on the public roads of the state. This will be accomplished by the adoption of the bills proposed by Messrs. Carroll and Clarkson, which simply provide that any person using wide-tired wagons can, for a limited number of years, be relieved of a portion of his road tax, not exceeding one-half of the road tax paid by such person during any year. It is wise to adopt this measure, as it will set the people to thinking about the wide tires; will encourage and help them to make the change; and this measure works no hardship on people not using or owning wagons, for the reason that the adoption of the wide tire benefits the road more than would the payment of this part of a man's road tax.—News and Observer.

A man who will sacrifice ambition for his conscience's sake is the highest type of true and genuine manhood.

The Charlotte Gas Light company has given notice of a reduction in the price of gas to $1.50 per thousand cubic feet for light and $1.25 for all gas used for fuel. Up to the hour of going to press there has been no reduction in Greensboro.

Long live Senator Bob Glenn, of Forsyth! A brave man, a conscientious Christian gentleman, he dares to do right in the face of anything that rises before him. His speech in the senate on the Greensboro dispensary bill was almost unanimously conceded to be the best speech made during the session. And in the matter of the Charlotte bill he filed a minority report from the committee saying that he "loved Frank Osborne but loved his conscience more." A noble man with a level head and a true heart.

The New England Newspaper League has been effected for the purpose of sending a joint corps of writers, sketch artists, photographers, and other staff representatives, on a tour of inspection through the south. The party will leave Boston on this tour, March 4th and make their first stop in Richmond, Va., where they will spend March 6th and 7th. They will visit, so far as practicable, all points of interest in North Carolina, as well as other southern states. This party will represent eleven of the biggest, best and most widely circulated newspapers in the New England states. Let's have them stop and see Greensboro.

According to our view, about the most imbecile and senseless cry against some of the acts of the present legislature is that "it will kill the democratic party." There are false prophets and prophets who are not prophets and prophets who prophesy for profit. Does any sensible man believe the body of men now assembled in Raleigh and who have been heralded as the ablest body of representatives the state has had in many years will deliberately scuttle the democratic ship? If the democratic party will be killed for acceding to the wishes of the people, we would like to be at the killing and see by what process it is to be carried out.

An Honest Medicine for La Grippe.

George W. Waitt of South Gardner, Mo., says: "I have had the worst cough, cold, chills and grip and have taken lots of trash of no account but profit to the vender. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the only thing that has done any good whatever. I have used one 50-cent bottle and the chills, cold and grip have all left me. I congratulate the manufacturers of an honest medicine." For sale by C. E. Holton.

As the season of the year when pneumonia, la grippe, sore throat, coughs, colds, catarrh, bronchitis and lung troubles are to be guarded against, nothing "is a fine substitute," will "answer the purpose," or "is just as good" as One Minute Cough Cure. That is the one infallible remedy for all lung, throat or bronchial troubles. Instat vigorously on having it, "something else" is offered you. Howard Gardner.

An Entertaining Druggist

There are few men more wide awake or enterprising than C. E. Holton, who spares no pains to secure the best of everything in his line for his many customers. He now has the valuable agency for Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds. This is the wonderful remedy that is producing such a furor all over the country by its startling cures. It absolutely cures asthma, bronchitis, hoarseness, and all affections of the throat, chest, and lungs. The Tasmanian Devil.

The animal known in Australia as the Tasmanian devil is one of the only two survivors of what must at one time have been a widely distributed class of animals. To judge from the fossil remains already found in many parts of Australia. Like nearly every mammalian quadruped of the continent, the devil is a marsupial, but with the solitary exception of the so-called Tasmanian wolf he is the only surviving marsupial animal that is carnivorous and may be regarded as a beast of prey. The devil is now very scarce and will soon be extinct, but in the early convict days of the island—when Tasmania, then called Van Diemen's Land, was the penal settlement for the worst class of British convicts—they were plentiful, and many ghastly stories were afloat of their attacks upon escaped convicts who had taken to the bush. It is believed that the name of devil was bestowed on the animals by the convicts, who had learned to look upon them with almost superstitious fear, partly in consequence of their appearance, but still more owing to their unerring perseverance in following up an enemy to the last with what looked like unyielding hatred. No specimen has ever been found on the continent of Australia.—Lippincott's Magazine.

Bratitudes at Sea.

In The Fall Mail Magazine W. Clark Russell quotes the instructions given by the Earl of Lindsay in 1685 to his captains:

"The keynote is struck with the devotional spirit of the age. The chief in command is to take care that all the officers and companies of the ship worship God twice a day. Swearing, drunkenness, robbery, sleeping on watch and the like were to be punished according to the order and custom of the sea. Punishments were brutally severe in those times. They marooned—that is, they set a man ashore alone on a desolate coast or island and left him to starve, to be destroyed by savages or wild beasts.

"They kept hauled—that is, they dragged a man naked by yard arms and whips under the bottom of a ship, and drew him up raw and bloody with the harsh wounding of barnacles and spike-like adherences, only to be submerged afresh ere the unhappy miscreant could fetch a full breath. They nailed a man to the mainmast by driving a knife through his hand. For murder (that was often manslaughter) they tied the living to the dead, back to back, and threw them overboard."

Rat Prognosticators.

The old superstition, which has grown into an adage, that rats desert a ship which is no longer seaworthy, is still an article of faith with the fresh water sailors of the great lakes. Sundry well authenticated instances seem to justify this belief. Here is one: The Vernon was a three master which did a tramp business. Built in Buffalo in 1850, she was for many years regarded as one of the best craft on the lakes.

Late in the fall, about 16 years ago, she unloaded a cargo of grain in Buffalo, and reloaded with package freight for Chicago. She was about to sail one rough November night. Just before the lines were let off one of the seamen saw a rat run over the hawser to the wharf. In a moment another was seen. The seamen called others of the crew to see the unusual sight. Between 50 and 75 rats poured out of the ship and took refuge along the wharf. The crew refused to sail, but the captain was obstinate, shipped a fresh crew and sailed forthwith. The ship was lost with all hands.—Household Words.

An Empress' Pen.

I heard an interesting fact regarding the former empress of the French the other night which shows in what direction her thoughts run. Whenever she has occasion to write anything about her lamented husband, she always uses the diamond pen which signed the treaty of Paris. All those who participated in this historical occasion wanted the pen as a memento. But so keen was the empress on possessing it that she begged that only one pen should be used, which she thought she had a right to retain as a souvenir. This was agreed to. The pen takes the form of a quill plucked from a golden eagle's wing and richly mounted with diamonds and gold.—Woman's Life.

Rumor That Alger Will Go.

Washington, Feb. 23.—Secretary Alger's visit to Detroit, it is reported, is in connection with preparations for a possible retirement from the cabinet. The President would doubtless be glad to be relieved of Secretary Alger, but the report current that he has intimated as much to Secretary Alger, and that therefore the latter is preparing to resign, cannot be confirmed to-night, although it receives some credence.

Dangers of the Grip.

The greatest danger from La Grippe is of its resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for la grippe we have yet to learn of a single case having resulted in pneumonia which shows conclusively that this remedy is a certain preventive of that dangerous disease. It will cure la grippe in less time than any other treatment. It is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by C. E. Holton.

Acts directly on the stomach, liver and kidneys, purifies the blood, cures pimples, blotches and boils, and gives a good complexion. Every bottle guaranteed. Sold at C. E. Opening of the Social Season and Inauguration of the Magnificent

New York & Florida Limited Service
JANUARY 16, 1899.

The opening of the Florida season will be signalized this year as usual by the placing in service of the "New York and Florida Limited" between New York and St. Augustine, Fla. This is acknowledged to be the finest train in the world, in its appointments, luxury and detail of finish, and the first of these trains was constructed by the Pullman company for the use of the President of the United States on official tours.

"The New York and Florida Limited" leaves New York daily except Sunday at 11:50 a. m., via the Pennsylvania Railroad, the Southern Railway, Florida Central and Peninsular R. R. and the Florida East Coast Railway, and reaches St. Augustine at 2:20 p. m. the following day, making the run, which exceeds 1,000 miles, in little more than twenty-four hours. No train has attracted so much attention, and its fame has been heralded wherever railroading is known. It is composed of Pullman compartment cars, each room being finished in different woods and supplied with private lavatory and toilet; Pullman drawing-room sleeping cars of the latest pattern and finish; a royal club car for the gentlemen; an observation car with a handsome drawing room at its rear opening on to a wide platform; a library car, and dining car, in which the service and the cuisine rank with the finest New York hotels. This "New York and Florida Limited" runs through solid to St. Augustine with the exception of one car which is detached at Columbia, S. C., and goes through to Aiken, which it reaches at 9:35 the next morning after leaving New York, and Augusta at 9:50. Brunswick and Jacksonville are conveniently reached by this train at 12 o'clock noon through the perfect connections afforded at Everett, Ga.

There are two other fine trains between New York and Florida via "The Florida Short Line," one the "Washington and Southwestern Vestibule Limited," leaving New York at 4:20 p. m. daily, and the "United States Fast Mail," leaving New York at 12:05 midnight. The former train carries through Pullman drawing room sleeping cars between New York, Jacksonville and Tampa, and also offers Pullman sleeping car service between New York and Augusta, Ga., with connections for Aiken, Brunswick and Jacksonville. The latter carries through drawing room sleeping cars between New York and Jacksonville, connecting with parlor car service to points on F. C. & P. R. R. and F. E. C. Ry. Dining cars are operated on all trains of the Southern Ry. "The Florida Short Line" in connection with the Florida East Coast Railway to Miami offers the most direct, quickest and delightful service to Nassau, Havana and Key West. For full information, reservations, etc., apply to J. L. Adams, G. E. A., F. C. & P. R. R., 353 Broadway, New York, or to A. S. Thwait, E. P. A., Southern Ry., 271 Broadway, New York.

SUNDAY IN ENGLAND IN 1760.

The Pleasure Seekers Were More Numerous Than Churchgoers.

Would you like to know how the people of London observed their Sunday 150 years ago? The churches were open, of course, and there were two services in every one, and in some there were three; also the responsible and respectable citizen took his family to church, as a matter of course.

He made his apprentices go to church as well and demanded the text when they came home as a proof of attendance. Alas, he little knew that the boys were larking all the morning, and when the congregation came out stopped the old women and got the text from them!

However, those who went elsewhere formed the majority. The fields round the town were filled with companies of men, called rural societies, who rambled about all the morning and dined together at a tavern. The high constables went their rounds among the villages pretending to prevent profanation of the day, but they were squared by the publicans.

Informers were about threatening publicans, barbers and greengrocers for carrying on trade on the Sunday morning unless they paid a little blackmail. A shilling was understood to meet the case. Barbers sent their apprentices on Sunday morning to shave the prisoners in the Fleet for nothing, so that they might get practice.

Children were baptized after afternoon service, and a supper was given afterward to celebrate the occasion. At this supper the nurse, it was allowed, could blamelessly get drunk.

The benches of churches were bribed by beggars to let them sit on the steps and ask charity of the congregation coming out. It was the best business of the week. The rails before the houses of gentlemen were crowded with beggars. When the ladies got home after church, they did not disdain to slap their servant if dinner was delayed. The fields between the Tottenham road and the Foundling hospital were the resort of the sporting fraternity, who were assembled to enjoy the innocent diversions of duck hunting and cat hunting, with prizefighting, quarterstaff, wrestling and other sports.

The pleasure gardens were open all day long. People crowded to them in the early morning for breakfast and staid all day. At 2 there was an ordinary, in the afternoon and evening an organ recital; there was tea in the alcoves, and in the evening there was supper.

In the evening, when they reluctantly came away, with as much punch as they could hold, they formed themselves into bands for purposes of protection, while the footpads looked out on the road for single passengers, or, happily, drunken passengers, whom it was easy and a pleasure to rob.

And this was the way of a Sunday in June or July, 1760.—London Quen.

JAMES COULDN'T IMAGINE.

A Story That a New York Clubwoman Tells About Herself.

Here is a good story which a clubwoman tells about herself. "At one time," she says, "I was a colored butler who staid with a husband and who admired my husband immensely. He thought that Dr. H. was a marvel of manly beauty, as well as the embodiment of all the virtues, domestic, professional and otherwise. Of course I quite agreed with the butler on this point, but the fact is I sometimes pined to have him pass his enthusiastic compliments around to the family and not bestow them all on the doctor. So one morning, when Dr. H. had just left the table and was washing his hands, I took a bottle and was even then to be seen, an imposing picture, as he stood on the front steps drawing on his gloves. I remarked to James: "Dr. H. is a handsome man, isn't he?"

"Yes, ma'am. 'Deed an he is, ma'am! with gratifying enthusiasm. "Then, hoping to get a rise from James, I added with an absentminded air, as if I scarcely knew what I said, but was just uttering my inmost thoughts: "How in the world do you suppose that such a handsome man as Dr. H. ever happened to marry such a homely woman as I am?"

"Well, James just shook short and rolled his eyes and stook his head as if he gave it up. 'Thee art a clever one,' heaven knows, ma'am!'"—New York Sun.

Light From Sugar.
A phenomenon, the cause of which has not yet been satisfactorily explained, was described at a meeting of the British association. Disks of loaf sugar were mounted on a lathe and rapidly rotated while a hammer played lightly against them. An almost continuous radiation of light was thus produced from the sugar. It was shown that the light did not arise from heating of the sugar, and it is believed to be caused by some change taking place in the sugar crystals. The act of crystallization is known to be sometimes accompanied by flashes of light. The practical bearing of these experiments is on the question of the possibility of obtaining artificial light by methods as yet untried.—Youth's Companion.

One of Life's Tragedies.

A story was told by London Truth not long since and its correctness vouched for, which shows the folly of acting hastily and impulsively in important concerns in life.

The son of a very wealthy man at his father's death found himself free to indulge every whim. He had yachts, horses, an island on which he played king at his pleasure. He was not an immoral man, but idle and foolish.

One day while using a long distance telephone he was charmed by the voice of the operator at the other end of the line. He managed to discover that it was that of a woman, young, single and pretty. In the course of a few days he convinced himself that the owner of the voice was the one man being who should be his wife and that life would be empty and desolate without her.

The girl was poor and listened to his proposals. He cabled her money to buy her trousseau and to secure a chaperon to accompany her to the town where he resided.

In due time she arrived. Her looks were as attractive as her voice. He married her and a few days later was found dead by his own hand in his room. He left no explanation beyond the words, "I have made a mistake," scrawled on a sheet of paper left on the table.

As With One Voice They Spoke Up.

At a little uptown gathering not long ago the guests played some simple games and told ghost stories and managed to have a good time in the old fashioned way.

Prattly soon one of the gentlemen said: "I don't believe we appreciate what a steady old slow coach the human brain is. Notwithstanding all our talk about quick wits and flashes of intelligence the brain is not so easily thrown from its accustomed rut. If, for instance, I ask a question which is entirely new to you, but which your honest old brain mistakes for a query quite similar in construction, it will go right ahead and telegraph the reply in its own hidebound way."

"That sounds interesting," said one of the guests, "but show us an example."

"I will," said the first speaker, "with the proviso that you answer it promptly." He smiled, and then, without any haste, quietly asked, "Who saved the life of Pocahontas?"

"John Smith!" roared 20 voices.

"You see," said the questioner.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

When a Soldier is Degraded.

This is the most degrading act an officer who has been proved a traitor to his country. The day before the traitor is to be publicly degraded, the military tailor removes all the buttons and stripes from the officer's uniform, replacing them with a single stitch, so that they can be readily torn away. The condemned man's sword is also fled almost in two, in order that it may be easily snapped.

At the time appointed the traitor, who has, of course, been tried by court-martial, is marched out with his regiment, wearing his uniform for the last time. A halt is called, a superior officer repeats the verdict of the court martial, advances toward the traitor and says: "You have disgraced the uniform you wear; you are unworthy to carry arms. In the name of our country we degrade you."

The decorations are torn from the uniform, the sword broken in twain, and amid the muffled rumbling of drums the ceremony ends, although a term of imprisonment invariably follows.—Pearson's Weekly.

Poor Chance For Poets.

A poet is cross with me because I decline firmly to read his manuscript and advise him as to the desirableness of taking to verse with all his young energy. Other poets may take a statistical view of their case. Let them consider the estimated population of the globe. How many of them have justified their conduct in being poets? At this hour there is one such being anywhere? Suppose, for the sake of argument, that there are six. How many millions to one is it against the success of the neophyte? But, if verily he must, let him send his work to all the editors. If they think his poems worth printing (and paying for), then let him make friends with certain young critics, who will blow his trumpet before him. But do not let him bother busy old men, who, by reason of their age, are no longer good judges.—Andrew Lang in Longman's Magazine.

Tit For Tat.

Brothers and sisters ought to be glad to give and receive mutual assistance. "You show much had taste in the selection of your neckties, Horace," said the elder sister of a youth in his teens. "They always look so wrinkled and shapeless too. You ought to let me buy them and tie them for you."

"I'm willing, sis," he answered, looking at her pinched waist, "if you'll let me buy your belts and fasten them around you."

In a Boom Market.

The Lamb—The thing has gone down until it isn't worth a cent on the dollar. And yet you told me it was a good investment.

Not a German.

"Did you enjoy the german the other night, Miss Daisy?" asked Tinkleton. "No wasn't a German, Mr. Tinkleton," answered Daisy innocently, "he's an Englishman."—Harper's Bazar.

In some parts of Africa slaves are still the basis of all financial reckoning.

Not one child dies where ten formerly died from croup. People have learned the value of One Minute Cough Cure and use it for severe lung and throat troubles. It immediately stops coughing. It never fails. Howard Gardner.

John Rathgeber, of Carrollton, Ill., killed his wife, who he was suing for divorce, and shot himself.

Scrofula to Consumption.

Any one predisposed to Scrofula can never be healthy and vigorous. This taint in the blood naturally drifts into Consumption. Being such a deep-seated blood disease, Swift's Specific is the only known cure for Scrofula, because it is the only remedy which can reach the disease.

Scrofula appeared on the head of my little grandchild when only 18 months old. Shortly after breaking out it spread rapidly all over her body. The scabs on the neck would peel off on the slightest touch, and the odor that would arise made the atmosphere of the room sickening and unbearable. The disease next attacked the eyes, and we feared the child would lose her sight. Eminent physicians from the surrounding country were consulted, but could do nothing to relieve the little innocent, and gave it as their opinion that the case was hopeless and that the child would die. It was then that we decided to try Swift's Specific. That medicine at once made a speedy and complete cure. She is now a young lady, and has never had a sign of the disease to return.

Mrs. RUTH BARKLEY, Salisbury, Pa.

Scrofula is an obstinate blood disease, and is beyond the reach of the average blood medicine. Swift's Specific is the only remedy equal to such deep-seated diseases; it goes down to the very foundation and forces out every taint. It is purely vegetable, and is the only blood remedy guaranteed to contain no mercury, potash or other mineral substance whatever. Bought free from the Swift Specific Company, Atlanta, Georgia.

S.S.S. For the Blood

Annexing Race Troubles.

A barroom in Havana, it is reported, has been closed by the authorities because the proprietor, an American, refused to serve drinks to a Cuban general, who happens also to be a mulatto. "It is considered," the report adds, "that the incident will raise the race question." On the same day, as reported, two troops of colored United States cavalry were fired into, while riding in railroad cars, by unknown men in Mississippi and Texas, "a hundred bullets" being counted at the scene of the Texas affair. It would appear that we have race troubles enough in our own country and at its doors without seeking more on the other side of the globe.—News and Courier.

Last Night's Double Bill.

As advertised, the Murray-Hart Co. played a double bill at the academy last night, "The Captain's Furlough" and "The Irish Doctor." The first is a one-act piece, the second a two-act piece, both comical enough. Mr.
Murray and Miss Hart were the only characters in The Captain's Furlough, but by their clever acting they made up for lack of numbers.

The Irish Doctor did not know anything about medicine, but he was looking for a fee—and he got it. In this character Mr. Murray ably sustained his reputation as a first-class comedian. The other parts were well taken and each member was up to the requirements of the occasion.

The singing was good. Messrs. Murray and Yost and Misses Hart and McCullough especially delighted the audience.

Two or three chaps in the gallery made themselves a nuisance during a solo by Mr. Yost. Such fellows should remember that there are other people than themselves, and try to be gentlemen. People do not pay their money to see smart Alecs make fools of themselves.

Tonight by request "A Woman
Hater" will be repeated. Ladies free.

Missed an Opportunity.

We congratulate our Greensboro opportunity for decreasing evil by failing to ask for a dispensary. — Winston

MRS. HOUSEKEEPER:
Please permit us to ask you a very polite question: Have you a Uni-not mean a meat grinder, but a Chopper, which takes the place of chopping bowl and beater.

It chops meat, of course, but it does more. You can chop ham, coconut, or bread instead of grating it. You can—but we can't tell it all here. Our booklet gives full information free.
You will have use for it every day in
